

Collas Crill maintains strong position in Chambers UK 2022 Guide

October 2022

Collas Crill has maintained its strong position in the Chambers & Partners United Kingdom 2022 directory, upholding its rankings across all practice areas, with the addition of a number of individual awards.

The directory demonstrates the firm's market leading positions in dispute resolution and property work. The private client practice area is covered in the Chambers High Net Worth (HNW) Guide.

Group Managing Partner Jason Romer said: 'We are delighted to retain our status in Chambers UK across the teams in Guernsey and Jersey. Looking beyond the rankings it's reading the testimonials from our valued clients that truly reflect our position within the offshore legal industry.

'Together these results and comments endorse our core values and culture as a firm: we are easy to business with, we provide an exceptional service to clients who are at the centre of what we do.'

See below for a snapshot of the firm's rankings and a small selection of the client testimonials received.
